Trader Joe's 2009 Vintage Ale
You might be used to seeing vintages on wine;
perhaps not so much on beer.
And that's what makes this ale so special.
Trader Joe's Vintage Ale was developed, crafted, brewed and bottled for us in limited quantities this year. Its flavor, color, texture and overall character are different from our Vintage Ale of 2008, and in 2010
it will be different once again.

The 2009 Vintage Ale
is an opaque black color and features an impressive coffee-colored foam.
In a glass, it boasts cocoa and malt aromas,
with a subtle hint of lemon and ginger.
A sip from that glass really brings out the best in this ale – malty and mildly sweet, with hints of cocoa, citrus and spices.

Trader Joe's Vintage Ale is ready to enjoy right away, chilled but not ice cold.
Unlike many beers, though, this one will age for a few years, and its flavors will become more complex and interesting as time goes by.

What's that? You're a beer geek? We love that.
You'll love this. And we assume you'll want to know this is a dark ale on lees, 9% ABV (that's Alcohol by Volume, for the non-beer geeks).
Oh, and it's brewed exclusively for Trader Joe's, of course.
